An Old Paper.

Do Good-It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cough, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." EXPENSIVE ASPARAGUS.

A Luxury in Hothouse Vegetables That is for the Very Rich Only.

"I suppose the costliest of all vegetables sold here at this time of the year, or at any time, for that matter," said a dealer in fine fruits and vegetables, reports the New York Sun, "would be the hothouse asparagus that has just come in. It is produced now at ten dollars a dozen bunches, or one dollar a bunch. Each bunch is like a grocer in Illinois. This retail price of these some asparagus is very pretty slender, so that you don't get very much asparagus for a dollar.

"Take the stalks big and little, as they run, and they cost you about 15 cents apiece. The prices for this asparagus hold up pretty well till say along in March, when they get down to about $7.50 a dozen.

"There is more of such asparagus sold than formerly, but altogether there is not a very great quantity, though there are more people in New York now than ever before well able to buy whatever luxuries they want, and they buy costly fruits and vegetables more freely than they ever did."

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Day Bros. Co.

Funerals.

The funeral of John Harvey will be preached at the family grave yard, on Troublesome Creek, the fourth Saturday and Sunday in October, 1903 by Revs. Stephen Carpenter and John Henry Combs. Everybody invited.

The funeral services of Willy Roberts and a son of Mr. McPherson, both of whom were soldiers and fought side by side, will be preached at the residence of Mr. James Roberts, near the mouth of Pan Bow, by Rev. J. B. Fincham, on the second Sunday in October.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.

Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. I learned to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder, Theiford's Black-Draught should be used.
